Dear Mr. Fitzwater:

In assisting the oversight function assigned to the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) in Section 5.2 of Executive Order 12356, the Office of Security, General Services Administration, provided you a listing of ISOO analysts and their security clearances on March 4, 1983. Unfortunately, several ambiguities in the letter have caused some confusion about inspection and liaison visits by ISOO analysts.

It was not the intent of the letter to convey that all analysts listed on the GSA letter would be visiting your agency, but rather to provide you with information regarding the security clearance and other pertinent data concerning your assigned ISOO liaison official. Dates for visits to your agency by the assigned ISOO analyst(s) will continue to be established through mutual coordination by our liaison officials. Further, it remains the responsibility of the agency visited to verify the clearance of the ISOO representative with the GSA Office of Security (566-1484) before providing the analyst access to national security information.

I regret the confusion that may have resulted from the March 4 letter. If you have additional questions, I can be reached on 535-7251.

Sincerely,

STEVEN GARFINKEL
Director
